Charles Henry Angell, veteran of the Civil war, was found dead in bed Monday morning at the home of his nepbew, Elmor H. Alysworth, in North Foster, a few miles east of here. Dr. Harry Smith, medical examiner, said that death was due to heart disease.

Mr. Angell was born in North Scituaite, R. I., June 16, 1842, and had lived practically all of his life in the country thereabouts. He was a son of Peleg and Mary West Angell, a family long settled in Rhode Island. At an early age Mr. Angell enlisted for service in the Civil war, going with B company, Second Rhode Island Infantry, and during the long period of his army experiinces fought in 35 battles and engagements, including Gettysburg and other ments, including Gettysburg and other famous struggles. He was a member of James A. Slocum post, G. A. R., of Rockland and a delegation from the post will attend the funeral service.

Mr. Angell leaves no relatives nearer than nephews. In addition to his nephew, Elmer, Byron Angell of South Foster is a relative of like relation.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Josephine The funeral of Mrs. Mary Josephine Carney, 49, was held from her home Monday morning with services at St. James church at 9 o'clock, Rev. Edward J. Shelley, M. If Skin Breaks Out, Is Fiery, Itchy or Rough, Use Sulphur

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eccema, that othing has even been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying prop-erties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and beals the ezzama right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at apy drug store.
